We pray for

Linda Morgan

We remember Linda's family and friends in prayer.

Those we love don't go away,
they stay beside us day by day.

Unseen unheard Still loved
Stilled missed

Pat Curtis wishes to thank his neighbours and parishioners for their prayers and sympathy during the recent very sad loss of his sister, Peggy Duff. Your continued kindness, prayers and support are very much appreciated. May God bless you all.

THE DEEP END: Are you ready?

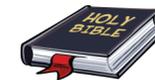

'It's a terrible thing, I think, in life to wait until you're ready. I have this feeling now that actually no one is ever ready to do anything. There is almost no such thing as ready. There is only now. And you may as well do it now. Generally speaking, now is as good a time as any.'

Hugh Laurie

I'm not ready – we all think it or say it from time to time. It could be as simple as not being able to find your shoes to leave the house, or a more serious situation like being under-prepared for a work presentation. It can also refer to our emotional state – we might not be ready to talk about an experience, to change a habit, to enter into a relationship, or to let go of a loved one. No one else can tell us if we are ready for a situation or not. It is something only we know. But there is some wisdom in the quote above, in that sometimes we need to push ourselves, to just dive in.

The parable in today's gospel pits two groups in stark contrast – the foolish bridesmaids who failed to prepare, and the sensible ones who were ready with their lamps and oil. Both groups fell asleep on the job, but only one group had laid the groundwork and so were ready for action. Jesus tells us we need to be watchful and ready. As well as having the light of faith, we need the fuel – the actions – to keep it lit so we are ready when the Lord comes.

The 'Oblate Connections' is a very popular magazine which we receive free of charge 4 times a year.

We have been invited to tell the many readers in Scotland, England, Wales and Ireland and indeed further afield about our Golden Jubilee celebrations. This includes the lead up to the Golden Jubilee Mass. Our problem is we have very, very few photographs. Can you help? Have you any photographs. It was a fabulous time so why not let everyone know, through photographs and composition the great time and will continue to have when we come together again for our Golden Jubilee Carol Service on 13th December at 7.00

Please send your photograph to ainecbryan@hotmail.com or just bring them to the Parish Office between 9.00 a.m. -1.00 p.m. Very many thanks. Sr. Anne

At the end of each day , before you close your eyes,
Be content with what you have done.
Be grateful for what you have.
Be proud of who you are.
