

R.I.P.
We pray for

FRANCES MORAN
PATRICK ARMSTRONG

We remember their families and friends in prayer. Sadly missed along life's way Quietly remembered every day No longer in our life to share But in our hearts you're always there.

My apologies to family, neighbours and friends for omitting the late Frances Moran's name from our RIP list in last newsletter. Thank you for bringing this to my attention. Anne

Visits to the Sick – Holy Communion and Confession

For those who are seriously ill and who are unable to leave home, we ask that a relative would please contact the Parish Office (01- 4501040) to arrange for a Priest to call to celebrate the Sacrament of the Sick. Monthly visits are made to those who are housebound on the First Friday of the month. Please contact the Parish Office if you would like to add your name or that of a loved one to the list of those who are visited.

CCTV cameras are in operation at all times in Our Lady of the Wayside Parish Church, Bluebell.

THE DEEP END: My words will not pass away

This chapter from Mark is part of a farewell speech from Jesus to his followers in the last days of his earthly life. It sounds almost apocalyptic because we are nearing the end of the Church's liturgical year and so the texts we read take this tone. Jesus is revealing to his disciples something about the new order which is coming. He talks about the 'end times' and this can appear frightening at first. However, if we enter into a meditation on this Gospel we might bring to mind something of those moments in our own lives when we felt like our world was ending. Perhaps it was the end of a relationship, the death of a loved one, the end of one stage of your life. Things which seemed so familiar and helped keep us secure suddenly changed. These can be extremely difficult periods of one's life. It is during those times that someone comes to us offering prophecy of better times to come, of words that 'will not pass away'. Jesus is preparing the disciples for what is about to happen to him and with assurance that God's kingdom is far greater than any evil that is about to occur. The passage is often interpreted as referring to the second coming of Christ or his resurrection. Whenever we experience trauma we keep going with the assurance that resurrection is all around us and a new way of being is on the horizon.
